

My husband and I oppose any further deregulation of the media industry. The American taxpayer owns these airwaves, it is in our interest that we be served with a wide diversity of information to enable us to make decisions regarding this great nation and to offer more choices in entertainment via OUR airwaves. Jackie Dorr